Kilbride & Lakeside Music Committee

Kilbride & Lakeside Music Committee is a member of the Irish Association of Youth Orchestras. It is a Voluntary Body set up under constitution in 1985. Its founders were Jimmy Craul, grandfather of the present musical director of MKMS Colm O'Hara, Jim Henry, Dan Gahan, Billy Craul and a local parents group. (See Kilbride & Lakeside Band entry)

The committee has, in recent years been the beneficiary of two Music Network Music Capital Scheme bursaries, which enabled the committee to purchase instruments including French Horn, Bassoon, Piano and Tuba, for the use of Kilbride & Lakeside Band members. The Committee is also aided by grant from Kildare & Wicklow Education and Training Board, through the Youth Club Grant scheme. Kilbride & Lakeside Music Committee organizes annual fundraising activities, eg, Sponsored Hill Walk, Bag Pack, Cake Sales and Raffles.

Kilbride & Lakeside Music Committee Aims:

- To promote the training of young people in musicianship
- To facilitate, support and promote Kilbride & Lakeside Youth Orchestra.
- To encourage all aspects of music.
- To provide instruments and equipment for use of the orchestra when finances allow, in order to advance these aims.
